

œIn a magical world there lives a princess who has the power to make everything she appreciates turn into something much, much bigger than it first was. In this special story for children, little Lizzie simply can't get enough of her mother's bedtime kisses every night. Even after she's been tucked into bed, she leaves her bed to find her Mom and ask for more kisses! Her mother decides to read her a story called, The Magic Of Appreciation. Through listening to the story Lizzie sees that appreciation is indeed very powerful. She agrees to pretend to be like the princess in the story, and by doing so her life changes forever. This wonderfully-illustrated children's book will help children to look at the magic behind appreciation, in a brand new way.
