

On the cutting edge of the latest medical research, this terrifying new thriller marks the electrifying debut of doctor-turned-novelist Gary Birken.. When Claire is admitted to a state-of-the-art medical institute in Miami, she has every reason to trust its brilliant staff-until the inquiries of her friend, a medical reporter, spring an inescapable trap of corporate greed and deadly corruption. Final Diagnosis crackles with authenticity. The suspense had me racing through the pages. (Don Donaldson, author of In the Blood)
