

Her favorite day of the year had arrived. The onset of spring always left her secret garden in need of a good plowing. How she yearned to have her basket filled. Having no one to share her bed she would till her Fertile Crescent alone. That is, until a seven foot bunny entered her room and spoke. Was it a dream? Was it real? Whatever it was she invited it into her bed where she would find out the meaning of "going at it like jack rabbits." This story is meant for adult readers.
