

This is a spiritual book and fictional novel by George A. Hart. He wrote this book during his teenage years capturing one of his first fictional stories, philosophy, and some of his first poetry. The story concept centers on the spiritual leader Atole, meditational salvation through unity, and the use of the divine Otar! The reader may find themselves traveling back in time on a spiritual and philosophical journey and possibly even physically if one believes in astral projection, teleportation, apports, or reincarnation, etc. Also, this is the original version with very few edits to maintain his original thoughts and poetic quality at the time it was written.
