

Do you suffer from stress, anxiety, guilt, fear or anger? Would you love to discover a simple, effective program for living without these negative, debilitating emotions? This book was written for those people who aren't satisfied with the answers offered by religion or self-help gurus. It introduces a philosophy for life that is based on hard scientific facts about chemistry and physics (but doesn't require the reader to have a knowledge of either). The three illusions mentioned in the title are the illusions of Free Will, the illusion of Time and the illusion of Identity. Using simple scientific explanations, this book will help you to gain a deeper understanding of your true identity and explain why though it might sometimes seem as if life isn't going according to plan, everything is happening exactly as it must.
