

Geography is boring and difficult to remember, except when its presented in an entertaining format, complete with myths and legends. This home schooling book is designed to give a dimension of depth unavailable elsewhere, as the figures represent the land, the predominant life found in that land, and the myths and legends associated with the figures in classic Zodiac of 48 constellations. The fit of the constellations to the land is fascinating, highlighting such obscure places as the Chatham Islands, one of which is Bounty Island where the famous ships mutiny took place; and the sailors nightmare, Kerguelen Island in the Mauritius area. Even the birthplace of hurricanes in the Atlantic is pictures under the deadly sea monster, Cetus. Colorful and fascinating, this marriage between the Earth and sky makes geography very memorable.
